

- ▶ OLIVIER Mexico has currently in the process of opening up 4 permanent point of sales and showrooms in Mexico City, Toluca, Monterrey, and Guadalajara in which customers can visit those centers and obtain information on various product ranges offered by OLIVIER Mexico. Experienced sales and technical teams will be available to promote the products and assist the customers and end users continuously.
- ▶ The These point of sales will consist of showrooms, sales and service offices, maintenance and repair centers in addition to spare parts.
- ▶ OLIVIER Mexico is eager to work and provide superior services to the construction Industries from small to very large scale construction and road way projects in Mexico. The highly professional management team has vast experience of and knowledge in implementing and promoting our high quality machineries in Mexican market.
- ▶ Our core management team consisted of professional construction industry leaders who have successfully implemented a major German brand of construction machinery in the USA and Middle East during the past decades.
- ▶ Our local highly skilled sales professional staff is promoting the OLIVIER products and assists the customers in the most respected professional manner.
- ▶ Our local point of sale highly skilled maintenance and repair team of mechanics will be available to provide after sales services
- ▶ Each point of sales/showroom facility will provide service call around the clock.
- ▶ OLIVIER Mexico is in the process of establishing a Tower Crane Factory in Mexico to locally produced quality tower cranes so that to fulfill the market needs competitively. In addition of producing highly competitive products, we will provide employments and revenues for the country.